He waded in, but of the beyond his depth, floundered around for some time, but finally took his seat, after justifying the murder of Ashburn, saying that he received his just deserts for his infamous crimes.

Democracy.

But the rebel doctors of the Democ But the react doors of the Democracy at New York effected a cure for Senator Carille which could not be wrought by Republican legislation, and he is back among those friends he was not more reluctant in leaving than they were in loosing him. A and his reasons will strike a chord in thousands of conservative hearts, especially the following:

dous cheering by the mation savers, who were lately in the constitutional rebel army.

J. N. Camden then addressed the confederation in a lengthy speech of about five minutes. We did not admire his style of speech, but think he would make a fine exhorter; however, we must give him credit for brevity, and considerable good sense for borings so short a hole.

Then came the war horse, a gentleman from Ohio, by the name of Needham, who took off his cost, rolled up his sleeves, and waded in, proving to the satisfaction of all, that if he did not produce much argument, he possessed a good pair of lungs, and that Ohio should boast of having the ugliest man in America.

We are sure that at no time during the day one hundred and fifty persons were in attendance, of which one-fourth were Radicals, and one-third rebels, who for trying to save the Union and the Constitution in the rebel army, are not allowed to exercise their political rights.

The show wound up about 5 o'clock, which was a grand success for us, but great fallure for the "faithful." We noticed great dissatisfaction among them. The craft is sinking—going down, down, down.

Political Prospects—Mass Meeting and Discussion at Fellowsville—Democratic Bondholder and Carpet Bagger Used Up.

Rowlesburg, August 25, '68, Editors Intelligencer:

The pollitical horizon is bright in robustitutional horizon is bright in robustitutional horizon is bright in as I am opposed to the Radical legislation of the last six years, I am more opposed to disunion. So long as we are one people vicious legislation may be corrected, even constitutional amendments may be abolished, and constitutional liberty preseved; but once divided into seperate States, under different governments, liberty and prosperity, peace and good government, are lost forever. Grant will receive no support from secessionists or their sympathizers; they are all to be found in the ranks of the party supporting Mr. Seymour. The conservatism of Republicanism nominated Grant. The radicalism of Democracy nominated Seymour."

Those who know Senator Carille, and remember how much he sacrificed in opposing the Radicals, will understand the value of these strong admissions. He is simply the advance guard of thousands similarly situated; men who expected to be rescued by the Democratic National Convention from the dilemma of supporting another rebei movement, and who disapointed in that expectation, turn to Grant as the only remaining hope and stay of the Republic.

THERE is as much talk about the instructions to Gen. Rosecrans, Minister to Mexico, as if we were supposed to need a Mexican policy. All the Mexican policy wanted is, to keep our hands out of the fire. We have Mexico enough to take care of within the borders of the United States.

Why is the eighteenth letter of the alphabet like the Presidential election of 1868? Because it is the end of both Seymour and Blair.
